

Hotel Aliko - Symi

If you want to be transported back to the true surroundings of the old style Symiat grand houses, then this is the Hotel for you. The Hotel Aliko stands right on the waters edge, midway between the entrance to the harbour and the famous old boatyard, and is an elegant 15 room Hotel, beautifully furnished and decorated.

There is a splendid Reception area with a bar and breakfast room, or should you wish you can take your ease outside at a table right at the waters edge. A coffee shop and a large terrace with an outside dining area

You can swim from within a few metres of the hotel, or you can take a five minute stroll past the boatyard to the beach at Nos. A five minute walk in the other direction will take you past the fascinating sights of the harbour-side and into the heart of the port of Yialos with its shops, tavernas and cafe-bars Bedrooms A5 on the first floor and B5 immediately above on the 2nd floor are twinbedded rooms with ensuite shower room. Both have sideview windows and a small balcony with views out towards Turkey.

Bedrooms A4 on the first floor and B5 immediately above on the 2nd floor are double bed rooms with ensuite bathroom. Both have a large balcony with wonderful views out towards Turkey and along to the clock tower

Rooms A3 on the first floor and B3 immediately above on the 2nd floor are a suite of rooms a twin bedded room with tea making facility, shower room and sitting room. Both have sideview windows and a small balcony with views out towards Turkey and along to the clock tower.

Bedrooms A2 on the first floor and B2 immediately above on the 2nd floor are twin bed rooms with ensuite shower room. Both have side views down to the clock tower.

Bedroom C5 on the 3rd floor is a twin bedded room with ensuite shower room.

Bedroom C3 on the 3rd floor is a double-bedded room with ensuite shower room.

Bedroom C3 on the 3rd floor is a double bedded room with ensuite shower room looking onto the internal courtyard

All Bedrooms on C floor look onto the internal courtyard.

above there is a roof terrace with spectacular views