

VILLA MERIDIANA

A traditional 17th century Symian home in the Chorio (upper town), now restored to twentieth century standards. The accommodation is divided into three self-contained apartments, each with a separate entrance through a walled pebbled mosaic courtyard.

Apartment No 1

The original salon of the house is a spacious, beautifully furnished open plan room with traditional pine ceiling.

Twin beds are situated in the living area.

The small kitchen has a modern sink unit, two ring electric cooker, a fridge and a small cupboard all in one.

Plus separate tiled W.C. with shower and wash basin

The apartment is suitable for two people and has a small wooden balcony

