

VILLA MERIDIANA

A traditional 17th century Syriac home in the Chorio (upper town), now restored to twentieth century standards. The accommodation is divided into three self-contained apartments, each with a separate entrance through a walled pebbled mosaic courtyard.

Apartment No 2

The arched ceiling room of the house with original stone chimney is used now as a kitchen dining area. The kitchen facilities include a two ring electric cooker, a fridge and sink are all included in a modern unit

Next to this is a double-bedded room and a tiled W.C. with shower and wash basin. From the bedroom there is access to the garden of the house with partial views to the hills above PEDI bay.

This apartment is nicely furnished and is suitable for two persons.
