

VILLA SPIROS

Ten minutes up from the Harbour in the historic old town of Chorio, Villa Spiros is a high-ceilinged old house with spectacular views over the town and across the harbour and bay suitable for up to 4 persons

Entry to the villa is through its own gate into a small courtyard.

The bathroom with shower, W.C. and washhand basin is situated in the courtyard.

You enter the house into a hall with a single bedroom on your left and the kitchen on your right

The kitchen has a traditional fireplace and is well equipped with fridge / freezer, mini oven and hob.

There is a large salon straight ahead leading onto a balcony with superb views over the harbour and bay. A single bed is located in the salon.

Off the salon is an airy double bedroom with two large windows. Views from the front window are the same as from the balcony.

A walk down the famous Kali Strata brings you to the heart of Yialos harbour with its shops, tavernas, café-bars, excursion and taxi boats, or you can take the bus or taxi service to Pedi bay
